To the City Council (of the City of Seattle)

Gentlemen

We has a firm being the oldest Auctioneers in Seattle, called at the City Treasury today and paid Two hundred dollars for a Licence and received a receipt for same in the name of Bickerton & Bell but upon going to the Comptrolers Office were informed that a Licence could only be obtained for one of the firm. We wish to state that although the Licence has been granted heretofore in the name of B & B we never have more than one Sale running at a time. Our Mr. Bickerton will be at your Meeting this evening if you will grant him a hearing

You will

oblige Yours Respectfully

Bickerton & Bell
